THE PASTOR'S PAGE

A few weeks ago my family went back to school shopping for the beginning of this next school year. I remember back to my childhood and the excitement of the new school year, a new box of crayons or colored pencils in younger grades, or in later grades a new calculator or one of those fancy binders that I believe we called trapper keepers (I am pretty sure those have gone out of style). Regardless of the items involved, the new school year and the supplies associated always seemed to generate a sense of expectancy and excitement for how the year was going to go.

When is the last time you “invested” in your spiritual walk in a similar way? Perhaps with a new study Bible that sounded interesting, a new prayer journal, or a fancy set of highlighters for use in your Bible reading time? Now ideally, we don’t need something new in order to make us interested in reading our Bible, but sometimes we can use incentives to generate healthy habits that will long outlast the “newness” of the item.

A few years ago I bought a new Bible in a translation that I had not read before but had heard some good things about. I have really enjoyed reading it, and seeing the definitions that it includes in the text for some of the Biblical concepts or words that are used. That Bible is now about three years old and it still is the one Erin and I use for our nightly reading time as we go to sleep. It no longer feels new, but it is still accomplishing the goal which we had for it, which was to give us a little bit different reading of the Bible during our time that we read together.

There are many different ways in which we can spend some money to invest in our spiritual walk. There are countless books that hit on every area of our spiritual walk that can be a benefit to our relationship with the Lord, if you need a recommendation let me know! Perhaps its a bedside light, or a calendar, a new coffee cup (only for devotional time), a subscription to a music platform for worship music, or any number of things that can help you to focus in on listening to the Lord and growing in Him. We spend so much money on so many things here in the USA, let’s use some of that for our own spiritual health and growth.

A SOUTH-ASIAN DISH IN HONOR OF OUR MISSIONARY

- Skin chicken and pat it dry
- Peel the onions, chop two of them coarsely and put them into a blender. Cut the third onion in half lengthwise, then slice it into thin half-rounds and set aside
- Add 6 Tbsp of water, ginger, and the garlic to the onions in the blender and blend on high speed until it's a smooth paste
- Heat 6 Tbsp of oil in a 10-12 inch pot over med-high flame. When hot, put in the sliced onions and fry them.
- Remove onions with a slotted spoon and drain on paper towels

Ingredients:

- 3 lbs chicken thighs
 - 3 medium sized onions
 - 2 Tbsp grated fresh ginger
 - 4 cloves garlic, chopped
 - 8 Tbsp vegetable oil
 - 1 Tbsp ground coriander
 - 1 tsp ground cumin
 - ½ tsp ground turmeric
 - 2 Tbsp plain yogurt
 - 4 Tbsp tomato sauce
 - 1 tsp salt
 - ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
 - ¼ tsp ground cloves
 - ⅛ tsp cayenne pepper
 - 1 whole lemon
 - 1 Tbsp sugar
 - ⅛ tsp pepper
- In the same oil, brown the chicken on all sides until they are golden, but not cooked through. Remove with a slotted spoon.
- Add the remaining 2 Tbsp of oil to the pot. Pour in the paste from the blender. Fry it while stirring for about 10 min or until paste turns a nice golden brown. Add coriander cumin and turmeric and cook 2 minutes longer
- Add yogurt and cook another 2 minutes.
- Add tomato sauce and cook another 2 minutes
- Finally, add the rest of the salt, cinnamon, cloves, cayenne and 1 ½ c water. Bring to a boil. Cover, lower heat and simmer 10 minutes
- Cut the lemon into 5 slices, discarding the end pieces, and remove the seeds. Add lemon slices along with chicken, fried onion, sugar, and pepper to the sauce, stir, and bring to a boil.
- Cover, lower heat, and simmer gently for 20-25 minutes
- To serve: empty contents of pot into shallow serving bowl. Arrange the cooked lemon slices on top of the chicken pieces. Serve with rice. For vegetables they would serve carrots and peas with ginger or cauliflower or any other veggie.
